SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Jesus introduces the coming of the Holy Spirit to indwell in believers and empower them to walk in a way that glorifies God and grows His church (Acts 1:8). They are used by God to fulfill the mission of the church and proclaim the gospel (1 Corinthians 12:7). Gifts are given to believers to help the church. Select the top 4 gifts below that best describe you:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Faith	The ability to have a vision for what God wants to be done and confidence to believe it will be accomplished despite circumstances.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Service	The ability to identify and care for the physical needs of people through a variety of means.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Discernment	The ability to distinguish between truth and lies, or holiness and evil, like an internal alarm clock that goes off when you encounter something false.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Teaching	The ability to explain and effectively apply the truths of God's Word so others can learn. To interpret, organize and communicate the Bible.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Exhortation	The ability to motivate others to respond to the truth by providing timely words of counsel, encouragement and consolation.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Mercy	The ability to deeply empathize and engage in compassionate acts on behalf of people who are suffering physical, mental or emotional distress.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Giving	The ability to contribute material resources with generosity and cheerfulness for the benefit of others and the glory of God.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Prophecy	The ability to make God's ways and purposes known, and speak boldly of truth in people's lives.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Evangelism	The ability to be an unusually effective instrument in leading unbelievers to the saving grace of Jesus Christ.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Leadership	The ability to discern God's purposes for a group, set and communicate appropriate goals, and motivate others to work together for the glory of God.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Shepherding	The ability to lead, nourish, protect and care for the needs of a "flock" of believers.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Administration	The ability to steer a church or Christian organization toward the fulfillment of its goals by managing its affairs and implementing necessary plans.

YOUR UNIQUE DESIGN PERSONALITY

God has fearfully and wonderfully made each human being (Psalm 139) and provided them with a unique personality by which they see the world and respond to it. You are created with an internal design and external purpose. In order, select the top 3 personality types below that best describe you:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Persister	Dedicated, conscientious, observant; Persisters move toward situations and evaluate everything with strong convictions. They're internally motivated by BELIEFS and need opportunities to maintain convictions.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Achiever	Logical, organized, responsible; Achievers move toward situations and solutions (vs. people), and are internally motivated by THOUGHTS. They need work and time structure.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Harmonizer	Compassionate, warm, sensitive; Harmonizers move toward people and are internally motivated by FEELINGS. They need recognition of person and sensory comforts.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Dreamer	Reflective, imaginative, calm; Dreamers move toward doing things alone. Externally motivated by REFLECTIONS on the things, people or ideas they encounter, they need solitude and direction.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Catalyzer	Adaptable, persuasive, charming; Catalyzers move toward situations and solutions (vs. people), and are externally motivated to ACTION by opportunities. They need incidence and opportunities.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Energizer	Playful, spontaneous, creative; Energizers move toward people as an opportunity for fun. They're externally motivated to REACTION by people and events around them, and need playful contact and self-expression.

CONFLICT STYLE

God cares deeply about our unity as people (Ephesians 4:3) and wants us to make every effort to keep it. Jesus is our ultimate example of a peacemaker, and He uses us to develop His kingdom of peace and reconciliation. We do that by walking with each other in truth and grace when a conflict occurs (Ephesians 4:15). On a bad day, however, we tend to overemphasize either truth or grace, and slide toward unhealthy responses. It is helpful for us to identify and be aware of those responses. Select the one that best describes you:

THE GOSPEL

<input type="radio"/>	Lacking Truth	You may tend to avoid conflict, hide, be passive-aggressive and live in denial. These people are often more concerned with protecting themselves and preserving false harmony than engaging in the conflict to find true resolution.
<input type="radio"/>	Lacking Grace	In conflict you may tend to use force, control, manipulation, harsh words or intimidation to "win" the conflict at hand. These people are often more concerned with coming out on top than they are with preserving the relationship.

1. The gospel is the good news of what God has done for us through Christ. How would you explain the gospel to someone who asked you?
