

LIFE GROUP GUIDE

---

REMINDER: This guide is to be used as such, a guide. The questions should be used as conversation starters. Allow your students to come up with their own answers. Don't feel obligated to "get through" all the questions. However, do leave time for the living section at the end.

Ice breaker: Check in with your students about their last week, maybe highs and lows. Be sure to check in with them to see how their week went. Be sure to talk about last weeks living section? How did they do? Any cool stories they want to share?

Big Idea: I'm so over it.

Our Story:

1. Did anything stand out to you from this weeks video?
2. Do you ever regulate what types of movies you watch? Do you parents?
3. Have you ever decided NOT to watch a movie because of what it might have in it?

God's Story:

1 John 2:15-17

<sup>15</sup> Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup> For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world. <sup>17</sup> And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.

1 Corinthians 6:12

<sup>12</sup> "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything."

Reflection:

1. Movies in and of themselves are not bad, but about movies makes them "opposed to God"?
2. How do movies portray things that are in and of the world?
3. How does the bible portray things that are in and of the world?
4. If the Anatomy of a Disciple is a good measure as to what it means to be a follower of Christ, in what areas would what types of movies should you watch land in?
5. What types of things might help you in deciding what types of movies to watch?
6. What can I do to help you in this area of your life?

Living:

Take time to read and commit to memory the verses on this weeks reading list. Journal about what God has taught you in reading them and share it with the group next week.

Be sure to take time and pray with the students and leave 15 minutes at the end to come back together
