WEEK 7: The Sovereignty & Purposes of God • HOMEWORK 3/12-3/17 • SERMON 3/16, 3/19

This week, before we see the people of Israel enter into battle and take Jericho, we will pause to explore God's sovereignty, authority, and goodness. To answer the age old question of how we see God's goodness in difficult passages of war, driving people out of a land, and conquest. We will explore the attributes and character of God and let that be what shapes our worldview. Since this is a stand alone message, we will look at several passages to see a consistent picture of God's character and purposes.

1.	Read Joshua 6:21. Write out the verse below.
2.	What strikes you in this passage? What questions do you have about this verse?
3.	What promise did God make to Abraham in Genesis 12:1-3? Why is that significant to remember as you study the book of Joshua and the conquest of the land?
4.	Read Isaiah 55:8-9. In a few sentences, summarize what these verses describe about the Lord.
5.	Read Deuteronomy 7:1-11. Record 5-7 observations from this passage below that relate to God's promise to His people for land, offspring, and blessing.

6.	Read Exodus 34:6-7 definition of each att		tributes of God are listed in Exodus 34:6? Rec	cord them below. Then, write out a brief
