

Table Discussion Questions:

Use these questions to help spark conversation at your table — no pressure to follow them closely. Let them be a jumping-off point, or skip them entirely if your table is already flowing. Our hope is that your time is filled with fun, meaningful conversations that help you see new sides of one another and grow together in community.

- Did you set any goals in the new year? If so, how are they going so far?
- What's something you're looking forward to in the next couple of weeks?
- What's your "perfect meal" made up of your favorite drink, main dish, and dessert?
- What restaurant or coffee shop could you go to every week and not get tired of?
- Any upcoming trips this summer?
  - What's a place you've always wanted to visit and why?
- What's a book, movie, or experience that really impacted you?
- What's a hobby or activity you wish you had more time for?
- Have you ever taken a small risk that ended up being worth it?
- Do you have a favorite worship song?
